

occurred to me this morning, and I'm going to let them chew on this a little bit. Nebraska Legislature has one thing going for it, in answer to the press. That is ETV. I am going to make a motion in this body, later on that anytime that this body is the type, because you see this Editorial just doesn't attack me, it attacks the body as being nonsensical, nutty, and non-intelligent and you can't answer them, but I'm going to make a motion later on that anytime a state Senator is personally attacked or lied about or that this body is personally attacked or lied about, I don't mind being attacked with just criticism, they do it all of the time but I don't like being lied about. I can't answer except through the ETV and my motion will be that anytime that they engage in this kind of activity that the Senator that is being lied about be given a half-hour of prime ETV time to reply all over the state of Nebraska to let the citizens of the state know what the press is doing. I a...a...you can't read this in the Lincoln Journal, but I did manage to read it someplace else, and this writer, this writer said, and I don't know if it is true, if you read it in the newspaper it probably isn't. But here is what this writer said. He said that the greatest creditability gap, and this is from some poll, and this is not between the people and the President of the United States the greatest credibility gap is between the people and the press.

PRESIDENT: Senator DeCamp, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR DE CAMP: Mr. President, just going to suggest that we don't get back into the ERA this year. I know that argument about women going to the preg....excuse me, women going to the front lines, pregnant women being on the front lines, and being involved in war team up, and I remember after the one hearing the only thing that we really determined was that if the women got to the front lines a they undoubtedly would come back pregnant but we never got beyond that.

PRESIDENT: Senator Cavanaugh, are you a passing? I think I thank you for that. Do we have any bills on Select File?

CLERK: None, Mr. President. I do have some committee reports.

PRESIDENT: Just a minute, we are trying to get a report in Senator Carpenter, for what purpose do you rise?

SENATOR CARPENTER: I haven't been allowed a personal privelege yet.

PRESIDENT: Alright, thank you.

SENATOR CARPENTER: I have been wounded and seriously so. I enjoy it. Now, I passed around to the members desk a great compliment to Senator Carpenter. It says that Terry is off mark, and of course that shouldn't be news, shouldn't be unusual. I don't know how you people expect not to be put in an embarassing position by the press. It is their paper, and they have a right to do whatever they want with it. I don't want to in my case at least, to be confined to the truth. There might not be much to print about Senator Carpenter. I have always told the press go as far and as a fast as you want to, say anything that you want only one, thing don't misspell the name. I say to Senator Pfifer who was here and who does more lobbying for example than some the Senators on the floor do.
